REAL PICNIC WHEN GANG GOT BACK

Returning from Outing Faithful of Fifteenth Hold Brick Tourney.

The pipe of peace, which all of the sentlemen with aspirations for political leadership in those districts in which the names of George Washington Plunkst, "The" McManus and Johnny Ourry are immortal, smoked yesterday by mutual asprant during the property of the sentlement during the s by mutual agreement during the outing the Francis J. Goodman Association, but went out late last night when the securionists returned to town, and here was as pretty a riot along Tenth avenue as the Hell's Kitchen district has seen in many a day. It Was Lovely!

Windows were broken, street stands demolished, heads were cracked, eyes blackened and shopkeepers so frightened that they closed their doors and barricaded them. Women and children were terrified, and so fierce did the ruction get that the centre of hostilities worked over near the West Forty-seventh street station house, where a score of bricks Windows were broken, street stands station house, where a score of bricks went through the windows. A number of policemen were hurt in the battle and one was completely laid out, so that he had to be sent home in a carriage.

Mr. Goodman took his p'ayful followers to College Point yesterday for an annual outing. Goodman is the leader of the Fifteenth Assembly District on it was agreed in both the Fit earth and the Seventh Districts that factional lines should be forgotten for the day and the followers of McManus. Plunkitt. Curry, McMahon and Darden lie down in peace together.

They had a great day at College Point, and when they got back last night formed in line for a parade through the district. On the scene of their political activities again all the bitterness of the conjects now going per cent, on mortgages filed to-morrow by the strong odor of gas permeating on broke out.
